“Stanley flicked what looked like a light switch. There was a click, a hiss, and the edge of a door appeared where before had been a blank wall. Light streamed from the opening. Johnny and I followed into a chilly space that was filled floor-to-ceiling with wooden shelving holding books of all shapes and sizes in no apparent order other than a series of numbers and letters.

“You are looking at probably one of the most extensive libraries on witchcraft and black magic in the world.”

“The house was magnificent, but it had a dark side that would seep into my dreams and disturb my sleep.”

— from EYE OF THE MOON
